DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the structure which allows the auxiliary handle to be turnable between a plurality of turning positions and arrestable in at least one of the turning positions; the structure allows the outlet pipe to be "formed turnable"; and the air passage being "screw shaped when rotary directions...are inverted" must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 2, 5, 8 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The structure which allows the auxiliary handle to be turnable between a plurality of turning positions and arrestable in at least one of the turning positions; the structure allows the outlet pipe to be "formed turnable"; and the air passage being "screw shaped when rotary directions...are inverted" is not described in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to make the device as claimed.

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 2, 5, 8 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Please refer to the rejection above. Further, claim 2, how can the handle turn, as it is essentially "wrapped" around the housing of the motor? Claim 5, what is meant by "formed turnable"? Claims 8 and 9, how can a passage formed in a rigid structure change shape when the rotary direction of the motor and tool are "inverted"? How is the rotary direction "inverted"? Does applicant mean reversed? How is the air passage screw shaped when the rotary directions are "inverted"? Isn't the air passage the same shape regardless of the rotary directions?

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 1, 3, 4, and 6-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by DE 644011 (with English translation) (cited by applicant). Please refer to figures 1 and 2, and their descriptions. Note that the air passage is "screw-shaped", in that it curves through the handle.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Other similar cooling devices are cited of interest.
